SRS Solder Recovery System

Over 30 Years of Commitment to Innovation.

Hi-Tech would like to introduce you to the newly purchased SRS Solder Recovery System.

Since Hi-Tech was opened over 30 years ago we make it our part to keep our machinery updated to today's latest technology.

With the SRS system Hi-Tech can keep our low cost of manufacturing down by not wasting process materials but recycling them.

The SRS system:

- Recovers 50-70% pure solder from dross
- Saves up to 50% in solder cost
- Reduces de-drossing time by up to 85%
- Self-contained process reduces handling of dross
- Uses no chemicals, additives, or toxic substances
- ISO14001 certified helps attain & retain accreditation
- Improves wave solder machines effectiveness by reducing shorts.
- Less work = lower prices.

Innovation and investment keeps Hi-Tech at the cutting edge of technology and helps maintain our position as an industry leader.
